Quick Facts about Young Voters in New Orleans-Metairie-Kenner, LA¹: The Midterm Election Year 2006

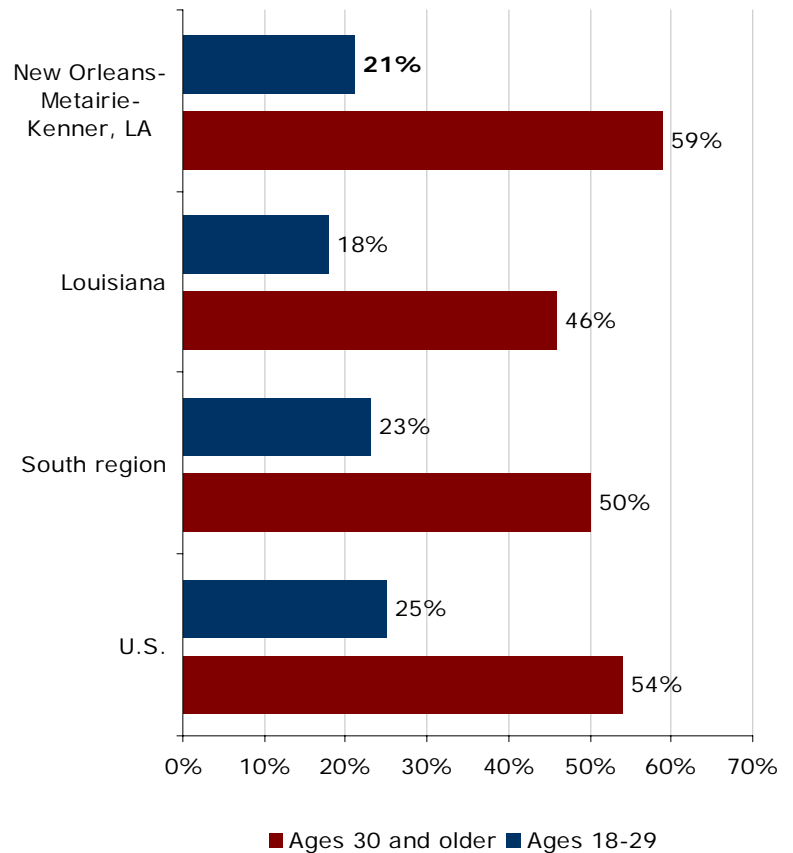

By Karlo Barrios Marcelo, Research Associate²
July 2007

The 2006 midterm election was the second major election in a row that saw an increase in the electoral participation of young people ages 18-29. Between 2002 and 2006, the percentage of eligible young people who voted increased by 3 percentage points to 25 percent, the single largest increase among all age groups nationally.³

In New Orleans-Metairie-Kenner, LA, the voter turnout rate among young people was 21 percent, three percentage points above Louisiana's state average, but four percentage points below the national average.

There was a 29 percentage point gap between young people and adults in the U.S., but this gap was significantly bigger (38 percentage points) at the more local level of New Orleans-Metairie-Kenner, LA.
